

NORTHFIELD NEWS

Founded in 1876

(Continuing Rice County Journal founded 1872)

JOEL P. HEATWOLE
Publisher, 1884-1910

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY

HERMAN ROE, Publisher
CARL L. WEIGHT, Editor
MARGARET LEE, Associate Editor
STANLEY T. JOHNSON, Ad Mgr.
HAINES COOK, Plant Supt.

Entered in the post office at Northfield, Minnesota, as second class matter.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES

For twice-a-week newspaper service, together with the Northfield Independent

In Minnesota Elsewhere

One Year$5.00 $ 6.00
Two Years$8.50 $10.00

THURSDAY, AUGUST 17, 1961

A corporation may be primarily a producer of goods, but it is more than that; it is a small society within society, one with motivations, with rules and principles of its own. It is a purposeful organization that can and must give more than money to those who serve it, and those it serves.—HENRY FORD II.

Ethical Standards Are Good Business.

Recent occurrences on the national scene, involving in one case price-rigging by one of the country's biggest industrial concerns in violation of anti-trust laws, has

Travel by Bus to Miami Beach Convention

• This large group of Luther League members and adult counselors from St. John's Lutheran church left last Friday by chartered bus for Miami Beach, Fla., where the first convention of the Luther League of the American Lutheran Church is in progress this week. Also included in this group are two young people from St. Peter's Lutheran church. Five other young people and two counselors from St. Peter's church went to the convention by auto.

The bus made the trip by way of Chicago, Ill., Nashville, Tenn., Atlanta, Ga., and Clearwater, Fla. On the way home, the young people will have overnight stops at Daytona Beach, Fla., Charleston, S. C., Richmond, Va., Washington, D. C., and South Bend, Ind.

The autos from St. Peter's planned to make the trip to Florida by way of the Lincoln country in southern Illinois and the Smoky mountains. The return trip will take the group through New Orleans, La., and the Ozarks.

The convention, attracting some 14,000 young people from all over the nation, formally opened Tuesday and continues through Sunday, Aug. 20. One of the musical events of the convention will be the presentation of the modern cantata, "Una Sancta," by Paul J. Christiansen of the faculty of Concordia college, Moorhead, a native Northfielder. Sigurd Fredrickson of the St. Olaf College music department faculty will sing the baritone solos, making the trip to Florida by plane.

Young people from St. John's making the trip are Margaret Blorn, Pamela Olson, Sandra Christiansen, Sharon Koester, Ruth Odogaard, Julie Peterson, Patriciaolum, Jackie Tripp, Eunice Erickson, Joan Finholt, Lola Christeson, Sharilyn Olson, Cindy Gustafson, Karen Ellefson, Janet Gustafson, John Schumm, Leland Aadahl, Gerald Anderson, David Moberg, Sidney Olson, Rolf Otterness, William Pederson, Matthew Petersen, Thomas Wilson, Stephen Knutson, Kenneth Bergo, Paul Edgington and Philip Telander.

Counselors are Miss Barbara Sorem, Mrs. Clara Christiansen, George Minar and the Rev. Robert Bergeson.

The two girls from St. Peter's who are accompanying the St. John's group are Susan Johnson and Carol Nelson. The young people from St. Peter's who are traveling by auto are Kathryn and Vicky Nelson, David Barsness, Dick Hiley and Mylan Lundstrom. Their counselors are Paul Ramsay and Miss Mary Bergold.—Twin Weeklies Photo by David Moberg (who is a member of the St. John's group).

Do You Remember?

Items from the historic files of the Northfield News

75 YEARS AGO—August 14, 1886
• A branch office of the Western Union Telegraph company will be kept hereafter at the Milwaukee depot. . . . At Geneva, N. Y., Thursday, Aug. 5, occurred the marriage of Hiram Scriver of Northfield and Miss Delia M. Vanderbilt of Geneva. . . . A son of Rev. J. N. Kildahl of Holden fell from a tree last week and broke his arm. Dr. Coon attended the boy and he is now fast improving. . . . R. L. Kingman and Porter Sidwell killed two wolves near Stanton this week. If these hunters keep on killing wolves, sheep raising in this vicinity will be relieved from a serious drawback. . . . On September 15, the Theological Seminary will be opened at St. Olaf College.

50 YEARS AGO—August 12, 1911

• The Alumni Association of the high school, organized last winter, plans a banquet in September. Those on the committee are Miss Helen Hoppin, Miss Jessie Morgan, Alfred Lashbrook, and John Haskins. . . . Dr. C. A. Melby started for Norway Tuesday to attend the centennial celebration of the University of Christiania. . . . S. A. Netland and family returned Thursday morning from Europe. George Simpson has produced a new eating apple which he calls "Simpson's favorite" which has most eastern apples beaten by a good margin. . . . Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Christianson of Dawson visited at the Charles Crary home last week. Mr. Christianson is editor of the Dawson Sentinel.

25 YEARS AGO—August 14, 1936

• Thirteen-year-old Marian Lashbrook was chosen winner of the style revue at the Rice County Fair and A. H. club association at East